ORDER TRACTION INQUIRY.

Eddy Will Inspect Washington Railway Equipment.

The Public Utilities Commission yesterday directed H. C. Eddy, engineer, to begin an immediate inspection of the equipment of the Washington Railway and Electric Company. On June 1 the commission notified the railway company that during the preceding six months an average of six letters a month had been received reporting unsatisfactory conditions "found on seven-ten cars on the average and each iteming twenty-four specific defects."

LONGSHOREMEN ON STRIKE.

Metropolitan Steamship Company Completely Tied Up by Walkout.

New York, Sept. 25.—Five hundred longshoremen, day workers, employed by the Metropolitan Steamship Company, went on strike today. They demanded 30 cents an hour, the same wage paid night men. They have been receiving 25 cents. The Metropolitan Line has seven passenger boats and three freighters plying between New York and Boston, and the line has been tied up completely by the strike.

District Courts

Louisa Bird, administratrix of the estate of Richard Williams, filed suit for $5000 damages yesterday against the Washington Railway and Electric Company. In the petition it is declared that Mr. Williams was run over by a car of the defendant company in Benning road December 17, 1914, and instantly killed. Negligence on the part of the company and excessive speed are alleged.

Suit for a limited divorce and alimony was filed yesterday by Ida E. Thomas against William A. Thomas, a master painter. The couple were married at Alexandria, Va., February 16, 1895, and have two children. The wife alleges desertion.

Mary B. Logan filed suit yesterday against Ernest G. Walker to recover $5000 damages for alleged breach of contract. She says the defendant agreed to build a house for her at 1918 Belmont road, which was to be a duplicate of a house specified in the contract. She declares the house when completed was not similar to the one specified in the contract and that she has been required to expend $1500 in making repairs. She is represented by Attorneys D. N. Baker and Harry A. Grant.

Justice McCoy refused to enjoin the District Commissioners from disturbing Edward Johnson, a runner or solicitor for rooming houses at Union Station, in the Supreme Court yesterday. The permit relied on by Mr. Johnson as the basis for an injunction suit when produced in court proved to be revocable at the pleasure of the District authorities. Attorney H. L. B. Atkinson appeared for Mr. Johnson, while Assistant Corporation Counsel Stephens appeared for the Commissioners.

GUERRILLA WARFARE CHECKED.

Admiral Caperton's Measures in Haiti Are Successful.

Measures adopted by Rear Admiral Caperton, commanding the United States forces in Haiti, for protecting the food supply of the city of Gonaïves against raids by Haitian guerrillas, have proved successful, according to a report received at the Navy Department yesterday from the admiral. The admiral stated that he had inaugurated a mounted service among the marines near Gonaïves, for the purpose of maintaining a more effective patrol of the vicinity. This has been found to work well, and no disturbances have occurred, one admiral reported, since the beginning of the mounted patrol.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY
OPENS NEXT TUESDAY

Students Cannot All Be Accommodated in Residence Halls—Additions to Professional Staff.

The Catholic University will open its twenty-sixth year next Tuesday. Its residence halls are all heavily taxed and many new students will be obliged to find quarters outside of the university. It is expected that the freshman class will register about 150, from thirty States of the Union, about equally divided between the schools of science, law and letters. Divinity Hall will have about fifty young priests coming from thirty dioceses, among them representatives of four religious orders which do not yet possess their own house of studies at the university. The graduate students will be about seventy in number, including the fifty Knights of Columbus scholars.

The professional staff will this year number some eighty teachers. Several members have been added to it. Rev. Dr. John A. Ryan comes from St. Paul Seminary. He will enter the school of philosophy as a professor of social sciences. Rev. Dr. John O'Grady, of the diocese of Omaha, has been appointed instructor in the school of social sciences, and Rev. Leo L. McVay, instructor in the department of education. In the school of letters Dr. Charles Tansill, of Brooklyn, has been appointed instructor in the department of American history. J. T. Drury, A. M., has been appointed instructor in the department of political economy, and Martinez de Alva, instructor in Spanish.

The registration begins on the 25th and lasts three days. On Sunday, October 3, takes place the solemn opening of the university in the chapel of the Cardinal Gibbons Memorial Hall. Two new religious communities have begun their houses of studies at the university. The Fathers and Brothers of Mary, from Dayton, Ohio, have opened their house with one priest and several students. The American Oblate Fathers are building a house of studies near the entrance to the university to cost about $150,000.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

For the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia: Partly cloudy Sunday. Muddy showers and colder; fresh southerly winds. The disturbance over the Caribbean Sea was apparently central Sunday afternoon, immediately west of the island of Jamaica, and moving toward the Yucatan Channel. The weather is unsettled over the interior districts, under the influence of a disturbance that extends from Lake Superior southwestward to New Mexico, and from the Gulf of Mexico northeastward to the Rocky Mountain region. The weather has been generally fair, with much cooler weather has occurred in the Northern Plains States and the Rocky Mountain region. Cooler weather is also reported from New England.

The indications are that there will be rains Sunday in the region of the Great Lakes and the Ohio and Mississippi valleys, followed by generally fair weather in these districts Monday. In the Middle Atlantic and New England States, except locally Sunday will probably be followed by rain Sunday night or on Monday. In the South Atlantic and East coast States generally fair weather Sunday will be followed by unsettled weather and local rains on Monday.

The weather will be cooler Sunday in the Upper Lake region and the Upper Mississippi Valley, and Monday in the Lake region of the city. Valley, the Middle Atlantic States, and the South coast. Local temperature: Midnight, 56; 2 a. m., 52; 4 a. m., 50; 6 a. m., 50; 8 a. m., 50; 10 a. m., 50; 12 p. m., 52; 2 p. m., 56; 4 p. m., 56; 6 p. m., 57; 8 p. m., 57; 10 p. m., 57; 12 m., 57. Relative humidity—8 a. m., 84; 2 p. m., 80; 8 p. m., 80. Wind—8 a. m., 8 p. m., none. Hours of sunshine, 12.0. Prevailing wind, S. by E. Temperature same date last year—Highest, 60; lowest, 56.

CARRANZA CONTROL IN MEXICO IS DOUBTED

Report that His Men Seize Cattle Owned in This Country May Hurt Recognition Chances.

The State Department is showing evidence of irritation at certain acts of Carranza that may affect the cause of that leader at the pan-American conference on October 9, when he will seek recognition. It was reported to the department that Carranza troops had seized cattle belonging to American citizens on the railroad between San Luis Potosi and Tampico. A vigorous message has been sent to Carranza, and the authorities at Vera Cruz have replied that positive orders have been given to prevent these depredations in the future. The fact that they still occur, however, is creating the impression in some quarters that Carranza may not be able to control completely the forces under him if he is accorded recognition.

The opinion prevails at the War Department that Carranza is by no means as near defeat as recent dispatches have indicated. The highest experts of the department believe that Carranza is characterized as very resourceful, has some military surprise in store for his opponents, and that he may yet recover his lost prestige by striking a severe blow before the October conference meets.

The War Department yesterday denied the American troops have at any time precipitated fighting on the border by firing first across the Rio Grande. This statement was made in a letter transmitting a report of Gen. Funston to the State Department.

According to War Department officials, Gen. Funston's men will not cross the river in pursuit of any of the Mexicans. Shot to kill, down to the very edge of the river, but do not cross," is the liberal translation of the general orders of Funston to his men.

The situation about Mexico City is improved, Acting Secretary of State Fok announced. The department having made urgent representations Carranza sent a large force of troops to patrol and keep open the railroad between Vera Cruz and the capital. The State Department received confirmation of reports that more than thirty persons were killed in the streets of Cananea by Carranzistas and that American women were forced to flee to the border.

Gen. Felipe Angeles, the principal military adviser of Carranza, issued a denial of reports that Carranza had ordered the organization of the military forces of the kingdom has been prepared and will have preference at the opening of the Spanish Parliament.
